

Range characterization of the X-ray transform on the Fourier Lattice

Alexandru Tamasan
University of Central Florida

I will present necessary and sufficient conditions for the X-ray transform in the frequency domain. I will make the connection with the well known Helgason with and the Pestov-Uhlmann range conditions.

The simplicity of the conditions make them amenable for noise reduction, data completion algorithms.